Stake Girls Home In Waterton Officially Opened

Exactly two months and two days after the official sod turning ceremony, an opening program was held at the LDS Girl's Home in Waterton, and 64 First Year Bee Hive Girl's spent a gay and happy week in the home built to accommodate 50.

Four hundred people registered in the Guest Book as a steady stream of visitors called all day of the opening to view the new home and surrounding area, with over half of them staying for the gala program held around the campfire in the evening.

Eleanor Hudson was the Master of Ceremonies for the program which was opened with prayer by Phoebe Dahl followed by an address of welcome by the YLMA Stake Board President, Zettella Taylor.

"The Romance of Miss Taylor Stake" depicted in pantomime to music and readings, took up the greater part of the evening as the audience followed her in her reminiscing of her romance with Mr. Hillspring (portrayed by Rojanea Bingham), Mr. Park Lake (Bertha Stone) and Sir Knight Lake (Martha Wooley).

The second Ward Bee Hive joined Miss Taylor Stake (Barbara McPhee) on the stage to sing "When The Twilight Shadows Fall", after which L. B. Tanner sang "Rosemarie". "The Last Mile Home" was then sung by Jeanine Jensen followed by Helen Piegrass's Reading Lamenting Poor John Park Lake's rejection. Zettella Taylor then told in her recitation, the trials of Tent Camping at Park Lake, after which the Bee Hive Girls sang "We're Happy When We're Hiking" followed by the Town Reviewers Dora King and Jolayne Hill giving forth interesting bits of news about the Stake Board and Girl's Camp. A clever parody on the Girl's Camp to the tune of Sweet and Lovely was sung by the Raymond Music Club, just prior to the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Taylor Stake and Sir Knight Lake, with Reverend Ella Hancock Waterton Lake officiating. The wedding March was played by Herb Bishop and Jeanine Jensen sang "O Promise Me" (Though you would not recognize the words) during the signing of the register.

President Walker spoke briefly, congratulating those who had worked so hard on this project, after which the remainder of the evening was spent dancing under the stars.

The initial week of camping enjoyed by the First Year Bee Hive Girls in the new Home at Waterton was highly successful with the camp leaders having as good a time as their youthful charges who were busy from early morning until the last good-night was said.

An SOS had to be sent out for more bedding and food when it was discovered that there were fifteen more girls than they had accommodations for, but this didn't dampen their spirits any -- they had the whole out doors in which to hike, learn new square dances, participate in hobbies, swim and work on the grounds. The enthusiasm with which both the girls and their leaders showed for all, phases of camp life made it a very memorable week for all, the climax of it coming Saturday evening when their parents motored up for the polished program put on by the girls. The antics of Charlie McCarthy also created a great deal of merriment during the program.

Eleanor Hudson was the Camp Mother, with Helen Piegrass the Stake Bee Keeper and Marie Strong the Dance Director assisted by leaders from the various wards; Louis Allred, Raymond Second, Verna Salmon Third, Ella Galbraith, Fourth, Eyvon Carter, Magrath second, Hazel Cook, Magrath First, Hazel Hartley, Stirling, Anita Bullock, Welling and Jean Coleman also of Magrath.

It appears that the Girls Home in Waterton has a mascot -- Mary the Deer started out by regularly visiting those who were working on the home & the girls have made her just as welcome. She makes sure that the other deers realize that she has priority on their affection and intends to retain that position!

The latest drive towards standardization is the hamburger and hot-dog roll field inasmuch as the bakery industry is concerned over the now current sizes that number over 700. The only trend we've noted is the smaller type roll that makes the enclosure seem large by comparison.
